EXPERIENCE (1991 to present)

Creator, composer and performer of Junk Music™ Junk Music is composed/improvised music performed exclusively on junk and recycled materials. Most concerts close with a Junkjam™, where audience members grab a provided stick and piece of junk and everyone becomes a community of rhythm and chanting environmental phrases. Junkjams can also be stand-alone events such as a campus gathering.

- Solo concerts performed worldwide at concert venues, festivals, schools and universities, including World Environment Day at the United Nations, Llangollen International Music Eisteddfod, B Love Festival (Basingstoke), Grinagog, The Van's Warped Tour with Eminem and The Black Eyed Peas, The Great Went and Lemonwheel with Phish, The Kennedy Center, Carnegie Hall, Lincoln Center, Music Center Los Angeles, Sundance Film Festival, Seoul Drum Festival, Summer Series Dubai, Escena Contemporana (Madrid), Zagreb Biennale, Summer Series Dubai and the United Nations COP 16 Climate Change Conference in Cancun, Mexico.
- Creates Junk Music Playstations, sound sculptures made exclusively from recycled materials on which 20 to 50 people can jam together. Playstations have been created at First Night Boston, America Creates for the Millennium, Fort Worth Arts Festival, Kansas City International Jazz Festival, Discover Jazz Festival (Vermont), Canterbury Faire (Seattle), Snake River Roaring Youth Jam (Idaho), Utah Arts Festival, The Junkyard Museum (Memphis), Greensboro Children's Museum (North Carolina), Boston Children's Museum, Escana Contemporanea (Madrid, Spain), Summer Series, Dubai (UAE) and First Works Providence (RI). Playstation residencies have been conducted in elementary, middle and high schools in over 30 states in the US.
- Composed The Environmental Continuum for junk percussion soloist and symphony orchestra and performed with Louisville Orchestra, Mansfield Symphony, and Eastern Music Festival Orchestra
- Composed full length opera, ODIN, for six spoken word artists/singers, chorus and eleven percussionists performing exclusively on amplified recycled materials. ODIN was workshoped and performed at New York University.

- Junk Music has been featured in television commercials for Air BnB, Powerdot, Itinéraire Bis NIKE SB, The NBA, ESPN, Electronic Arts, and Paddle to Live.
- Junk Music and Knaack have appeared on the BBC, Late Night with Conan O'Brien as well as CBS Sunday Morning, National Public Radio, and CBS News.
- Solo concerts and lectures worldwide on traditional percussion repertoire
- (1980-1990) Over 150 solo concerts in cities throughout the United States, including New York City's Carnegie Hall, England, Iceland, France, Belgium, Luxembourg, Italy, Croatia, and Greece.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

- Junk Music classes, lectures, interactive workshops and residencies in schools, colleges, and universities in the US, the UK, Spain, Dubai, Korea, Germany, Austria, Switzerland, Holland and Sweden. Also lectures on entrepreneurship, marketing, diversity, and self-sufficiency in the music business.
- Faculty, Castleton State College, Castleton, VT
- Guest lectures and residencies on contemporary percussion repertoire at colleges and universities worldwide
- State University of New York at Buffalo: Professor of Music
- Creator of HOP (Help Our Planet) environmental education program for students of all ages. A program that fuses environmental consciousness & stewardship through the medium of music. Each student selects a pair of provided sticks and a small reused object. The student will then be taught a series of Eco-chants. An Eco-chant is a very short mini-message about a small change each student can make in their daily habits that will have a huge positive impact upon the health of Planet Earth. HOP also includes our Holistic Environment as well. HOP has been presented with Awards of Excellence from The United Nations, UN COP16 Conference on Climate Change, Federal Republic of Mexico, and the Governor of the State of Vermont.
